OCCD is a 175+ member statewide association of community and economic development organizations dedicated since 1965, to making your community a better place to live, work and enjoy life.

Our members are community and economic development practitioners from Ohio's cities, counties, villages, non-profit organizations and consulting firms.

OCCD conducts meetings, conferences, trainings and workshops; facilitates effective federal-state-local relations by achieving close coordination among agencies, associations and group; and seeks to improve the proficiency of agencies and persons engaged in the field of community development.

2019—2020
Annual Report

Under the guidance of Debra Mayes, OCCD Training Coordinator and Jack Riordan, OCCD Community Development Specialist, the 2019 portion of the OCCD Year offered two (2) trainings. These trainings were attended by one hundred three (103) members and non-members. The virtual training offered in August was hosted online by OCCD's Executive Administrator / Interim Training Coordinator Patricia Richards via GoToWebinar and was attended by seventy-one (71) members and non-members. All trainings were supported by ODSA Training & Technical Assistance Grants.

Trainings included:

September 25, 2019 – Determining Income and Allowances, Shawna LaRue Moraille, ICF

October 29, 2019 – HOME Written Agreements Workshop, Les Warner and Shawna LaRue Moraille, ICF

August 27, 2020 – Davis Bacon Virtual Training, Deborah Diez and Roxanne Jim McCarthy & John Zimmerman, Miami Valley Fair Housing Center

OCCD membership was represented by staff at the 2019 Ohio Housing Conference in Columbus participating with a sponsored display distributing membership brochures, newsletters and promoting the training opportunities available through OCCD.

QUARTERLY MEETINGS

QUARTERLY MEETING SUMMARIES

The quarterly meetings are structured to inform the membership of the latest changes relating to programs, regulations, housing issues, as well as community and economic development. At each quarterly meeting Anthony Core from Squire Patton Boggs LLP updates the members of pending or changing legislation, and a representative from HUD and OCD presents federal and state issues to keep the membership up to date. The summer meeting serves as the annual meeting featuring the election of officers, the presentation annual awards and the OCCD President's Award.

President's Award

The City of Kettering's COVID-19 Business Assistance Program is the recipient of the 2020 OCCD President's Award. The project was created to meet the needs of businesses in the community. In the face of the COVID-19 pandemic, the City repurposed existing business loan funds providing a responsive lifeline to local businesses. With hard work and flexible thinking the City assisted businesses and retained jobs.
