Addressing Unsheltered Homelessness Webinar – October 29, 2020 – 2:30 PM EDT

HUD's Office of Special Needs Assistance Programs (SNAPS) is hosting a webinar on October 29, 2020 from 2:30 - 4:00 PM EDT focused on the urgent and critical task of addressing unsheltered homelessness in communities. The influx of stimulus funding to communities presents an opportunity to target resources to address the needs of this very vulnerable population.

This webinar will:

- Highlight considerations for communities on taking a multi-pronged approach to addressing unsheltered homelessness that embeds equity in the process, as well as the benefits of employing people with lived experience of homelessness
- Feature discussions with outreach providers and staff with lived expertise about their work and challenges as well as what has enabled them to be successful in efforts to engage and rehouse people experiencing unsheltered homelessness in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic
