Register Today: Implementation Guidance for Use of CDBG-DR Funds as Non-Federal Cost Share for FEMA's Public Assistance Program Webinar - November 4, 2020 - 2:00 PM EST

The Office of Block Grant Assistance (OBGA) Disaster Recovery and Special Issues Division (DRSI) is pleased to present a new webinar for Community Development Block Grant Disaster Recovery (CDBG-DR) grantees. This session will provide an overview of the guidance document HUD and the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) published on October 14, 2020, Notice CPD-20-10: Implementation Guidance for Use of CDBG-DR Funds as Non-Federal Cost Share for FEMA's Public Assistance Program. Overview of the Implementation Guidance

On January 3, 2020, FEMA and HUD signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) that outlined a series of actions intended to streamline the use of CDBG-DR funds to satisfy the cost-share requirements of the Public Assistance (PA) Program. This included developing joint Implementation Guidance that outlines a flexible approach to using CDBG-DR funding for the PA local cost-share requirements (flexible match).

The flexible match concept allows CDBG-DR funding to be applied to distinct facilities or sites within a PA project. Applying the flexible match concept reduces the number of sites that must meet both FEMA PA and CDBG-DR requirements. While all the sites and facilities must comply with FEMA PA requirements, only the CDBG-DR assisted portion of the project must comply with CDBG-DR requirements.

On October 14, 2020, HUD and FEMA published the joint Implementation Guidance, Notice CPD-20-10: Implementation Guidance for Use of CDBG-DR Funds as Non-Federal Cost Share for FEMA's Public Assistance Program. This Implementation Guidance is directed towards FEMA staff, recipients, and subrecipients and HUD staff, grantees, and subrecipients. The Implementation Guidance provides tools to plan for and navigate the multiple compliance considerations of both FEMA PA and CDBG-DR in a streamlined manner. It also includes a discussion of the roles and responsibilities of each federal agency and of those entities receiving and using funds under each grant program.
