

Ohio Conference of Community Development Website Redesign 2021

The goal for the new website is to allow the ability to integrate forum functionality allowing members to stay connected with their peers even between quarterly meetings.

A background image showing a close-up of several hands of different skin tones stacked together in a supportive gesture. The hands are positioned in the center of the frame, with fingers interlaced or resting on top of each other. The lighting is soft, and the colors are muted, creating a warm and inclusive atmosphere.

Membership Benefits

Membership in OCCD provides the opportunity to connect with professionals who understand the unique challenges of working in community and economic development programs.

- ✓ Gain access to a network of colleagues through OCCD newsletter submissions, alerts, and workshops.
- ✓ Attend forums and workshops to receive training and technical assistance while dialoguing with federal and state officials to stay current in your field.
- ✓ Develop leadership skills by participating in OCCD committees and boards.

Join Our Meetings and Events

When community development specialists put their heads and hearts together, they accomplish great things for the people they serve.

In collaboration with federal, state, and local organizations, OCCD is proud to provide information and training to help you help your community thrive, including a newly introduced curriculum designed to build a foundation in community and economic development.

Trainings are provided in conjunction with OCCD Quarterly Meetings and as standalone trainings ranging from one to three days. For a complete list of upcoming trainings offered by OCCD and our partners, please view our Training Calendar. We look forward to seeing you!
