

OCCD Award Winners

President's Award

Haitian Community
Help & Support Center

The Haitian Support Center is a community-oriented nonprofit - to make sure that everyone has a place to come for services and help. Their goal is to help refugees and immigrants in Clark County experience a sense of belonging.

Their projects are community oriented - programs for children, youth, and the elderly in the community.